

Step 5 – Part 2 – How to find free E-Cards and send them

- I will show you a sample of finding a free E-Card, like Christmas.
- Next is when you open Smilebox and get to a Christmas list.

• When you open Smilebox, sometimes it does a upgrade. You can click on any name to look at them. Next is a sample when you click on send birthday wishes.

- Page changes and you see a list at the bottom. I recommend you click on Free at the right and next is what happens.

- You have a lot of options. First is Choose Your Music. The default is Party. You can click on PLAY to listen to the Party Music. If you like it, keep it. Or, click on the Upbeat box and click on PLAY again next to it to listen the Upbeat Music and follow the same process to listen to the Friendly Music.

- Next is about Your Own Music.

- Your Own Music is not Free. When you pay, you get a 7 day Free Trial and cancel any time. The cost is $47.88 a year, which is more expensive than Jib Jab and Jacquie Lawson, but it has more features.
- If you click on the Your Own Music box and click on MORE, a new window opens and you have a lot of options which is next.

The image shows a screenshot of a music selection interface. A blue arrow points to the 'Your Own Music' option under the 'Choose Your Music:' section. Another blue arrow points to the 'MORE' button next to it. The interface includes several sections: 'Choose Your Music:', 'Choose Your Second Song:', 'Choose Your Third Song:', 'Slideshow Speed:', 'Choose Your Color Scheme:', 'Choose Your Title:', and 'Choose Title Font:'. Each section has radio buttons for selection and buttons for 'PLAY' or 'MORE'. The 'Slideshow Speed' section has a slider set to 4 seconds.

- You see new Window opens on the left. If you have Music on your Computer that you want to add, click on Browse for a Song. If not, next explains about it.

The image shows a 'Smilebox Music Picker' window. On the left, there is a 'Select a song from your computer...' section with a 'Browse for a Song' button highlighted by a red arrow. Below this is a section for selecting from a music library, with a list of genres and songs. A 'Selected song:' field and a 'PLAY' button are at the bottom. A 'Continue >' button is at the bottom right. On the right side, a settings panel is visible with options for 'Upbeat', 'Friendly', and 'Your Own Music' (selected), 'Choose Your Second Song', 'Choose Your Third Song', 'Slideshow Speed' (set to 4 Sec.), 'Choose Your Color Scheme' (set to Rainbow), 'Choose Your Title' (set to Birthday), and 'Choose Title Font' (set to Modern). A red arrow points to the 'Your Own Music' option, and another red arrow points to the 'Slideshow Speed' slider.

- Window changes and you see Your Creation was sent! You get an email and the person you added also gets email. Next is a sample of my email.

The screenshot shows a notification window titled "Your Creation was sent!". In the top left corner, there is a small box with a paperclip icon and the text "Birthday for Marcelle Monday 2/19/2018". The main text of the notification asks, "Would you like to share it with more people?". Below this is a preview of a birthday card with a white background, colorful balloons (orange, blue, green, red), and confetti. To the right of the card preview are four buttons: "Post it" (with social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and Blogger), "Send it again", "Edit it", and "Make another creation". At the bottom of the notification, there is a section titled "Your creation deserves to be printed" with the subtext "Use our print and ship to home service" and a "Print my order" button. To the right of this section is a small image showing a collage of various printed items and a portrait of a man. At the very bottom of the window, there is a small lock icon and the text "Secure connection (SSL)".
