

Tip – Download Free Music

- If you don't have Music on your computer at home, you can download for free using a Website
- Second option is download Free Music from YouTube. But, you need a Google account. I will show you that later.
- Third option is download Music using aTube Catcher, but there may be copyright issue. I will show you that at the end.
- Next is how to get to a Website.

- The website is called Free Music Archive.
- You open your Browser and type in freemusicarchive.org and click on the Enter Key.
- Next is what Free Music Archive looks like.

- This is what it looks like. You then can type in the name of the Music that you want in the Search in the upper right. Next I will zoom in and the one I typed.

New Cuicuitte album ! L'Antéville.

Hi, it's Monplaisir.

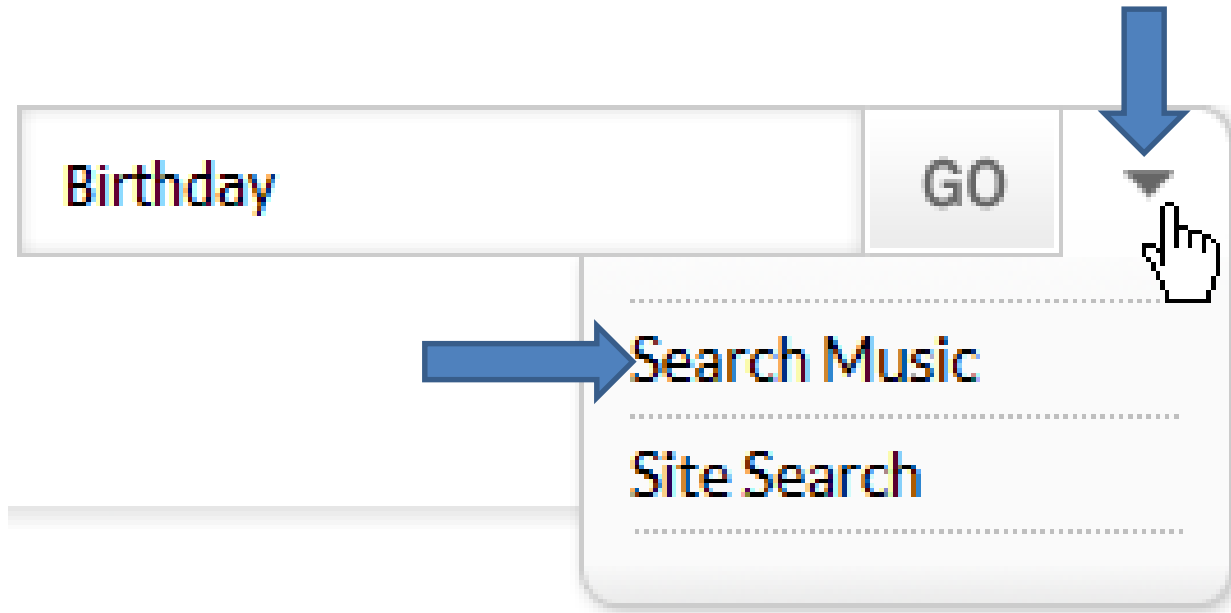

I'm really glad to present to you the new Cuicuitte album called "L'Antéville".

It was a long run, a home made album we've worked with my friend Otite Noire during more than a year. We didn't know what we wanted to do as a genre of music (and we still don't know how to qualify what we do- if you have a word, tell us !) and we ended in this cute and naive noisy folky acoustic music.

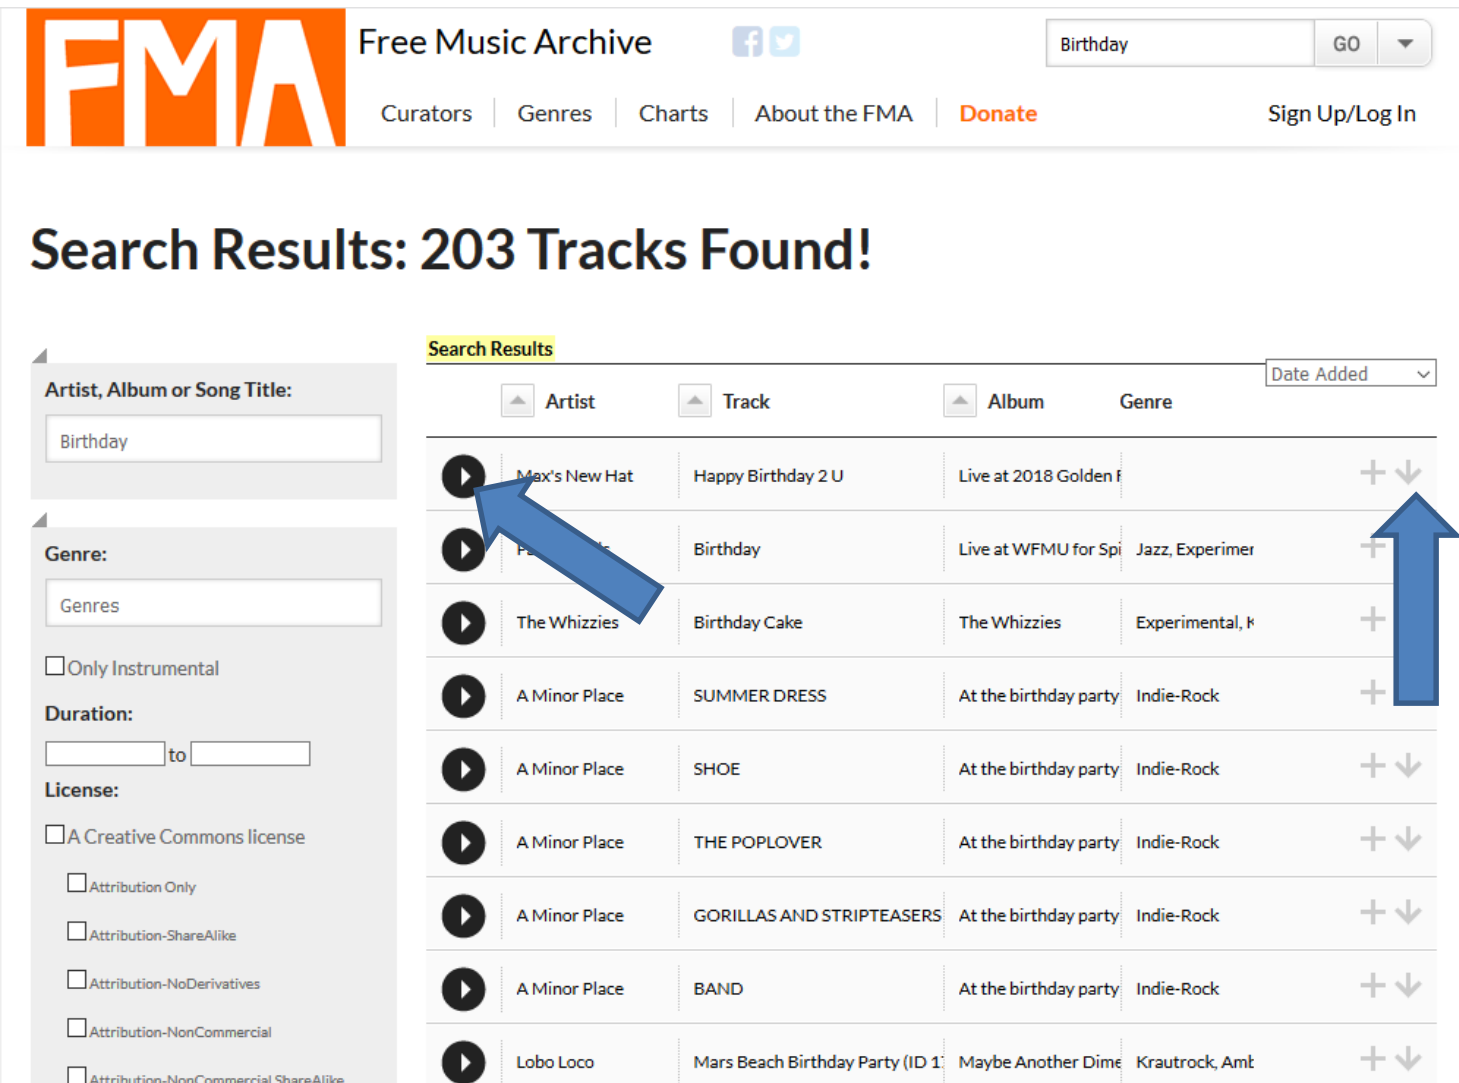

LICENSING 101 CHEAT SHEET

Not sure if you can use a piece of music on our site for a podcast, video or other purpose? We know that some of you are new to this, so please pop over to our License Guide or the Do's and Don'ts of using the music on this site. If you're really fresh to FMA, welcome, and please read our FAQ.

- I typed in Birthday and then hover over the drop down on the right and see a list and then click on Search Music and next is what happens.

You then see the results. You can Play then by clicking on  in the left and/or click on  download on the right. Next explains about download.

The main content area displays 'Search Results: 203 Tracks Found!'. Below this is a table of search results. The table has columns for 'Artist', 'Track', 'Album', and 'Genre'. A 'Date Added' dropdown menu is located at the top right of the table. Each row in the table starts with a play button icon on the left and a plus and minus icon on the right. Two blue arrows point to the first row of results: one points to the play button and the other points to the plus/minus icons.

- When you click on Download, it depends on which Browser you have, Some of them downloads it to your Download folder on your computer, like Google Chrome. Others show a new window and they show Save or Save File, etc. Once you click on them it also downloads it to your Download folder on your computer.
- Once it is downloaded you can drag it to another folder using File Explorer and use it in Smilebox, but as showed you before, you have to upgrade Smilebox and pay.
- Next is YouTube and I will show you a sample of download with some Browsers.

- As I mentioned before, you need a Google Account, like Gmail. If you have Gmail, you click on  in the upper right and you see a list and click on YouTube.
- Next is what happens.

- It goes to YouTube and you click on you account in the upper right and then click on Creator Studio.
- Next is what happens.

- Page changes and you click on CREATE on the left.
- Next is what happens.

- You see Audio Library with music. You then can type in, like Venice in the Search music and click on the Entry Key.
- Next is what happens.
