

Tip – How to do Products

- Note – Weebly used to allow 5 products for free, now you have to upgrade to add products. Starter allows 10 products. Pro-version allows 25. Business and allows Performance unlimited.
- The other option is to sell on Amazon or EBay and have links to them on your free account vs. upgrade.
- If you add Products to sell on your website, you will have to ship them. The other option for free is people who are in The Villages can pick it up in your Address and give you a call.
- Next is about add Product Element.

Tip – How to do Products

- First, I will show you how to add Product Element to a new Page. Note – you can add Products on the Product Element, but when you Publish it does not work unless you upgrade.
- After that I will show you how to upgrade.
- First make sure you are in your account and on the Build Tap.

- First click on Pages and then click on + that we have done before.
- Next is what happens.

- You see a list and click on Standard Page.
- Next is what happens.

- You see New Page highlighted and type in Text, like Store or Books, etc.
- Also, I recommend change to No Header, which is next.

- You see Store and when you click Header you see No Header and click on it.
- Next is what happens.

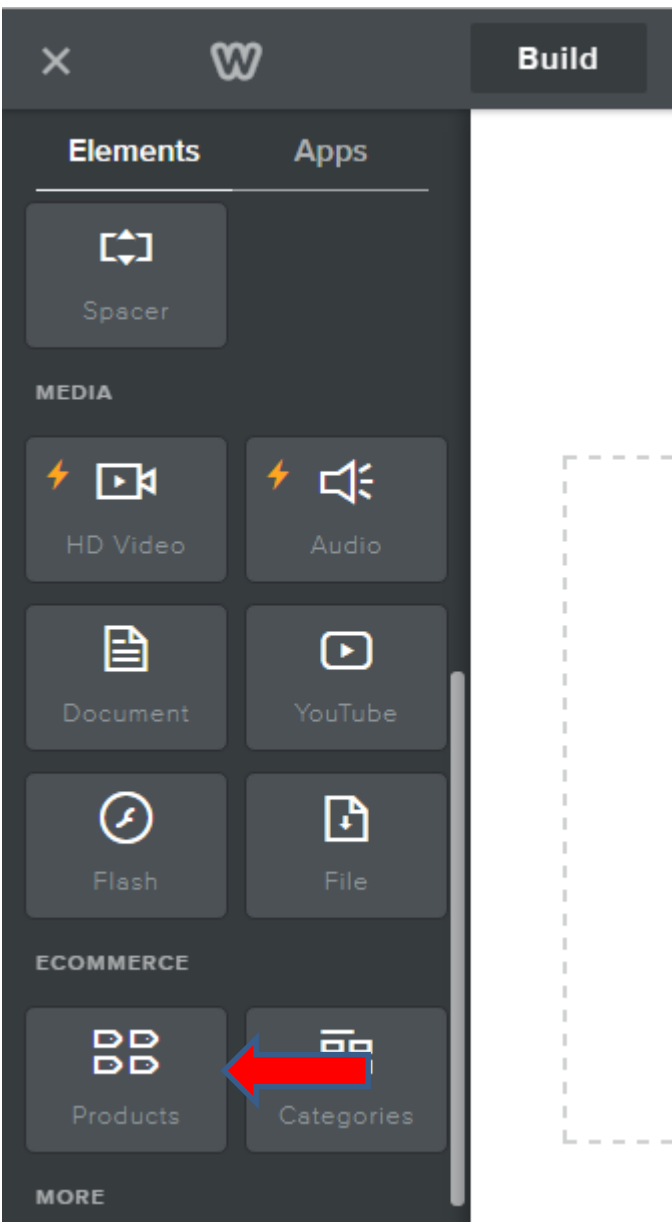

- You see No Header and then click on Done.
- Next is what happens.

- It goes back to Pages and you see STORE.
- Then click on Build.
- Next is how to add Products element.

- You then have to scroll down to ECOMMERCE and you see Products.
- You then drag and drop it, which is the same as we have done with other elements.
- Next is what Happens.

- Once you drop it, a New Window opens and you see pictures. I recommend you click on Add Products to Store and next is what Happens.

- It goes to the Add Product page and you click on Add Product.
- Next is what Happens.
