

Step 10 - Part B – Download Free Music

- If you don't have Music on your computer at home, you can download for free using the links in Version 2012 which I will show you next. Note – if you have Version 2011, it does not have that feature.
- Second option is download Free Music from YouTube. I will show you that later
- Third option is download Music using aTube Catcher, but there may be copyright issue. I will show you that at the end.
- Note – Movie Maker has links to AudioMicro, Free Music Archive, Vimeo, but most of them you have to create an account, except Free Music Archive, which I am showing you that one.
- Next is the links in Movie Maker.

- If you have the 2012 version of Movie Maker, you click on the drop down the bottom of Add music and you see 3 links to at music online. As I mentioned before I recommend you click on Free Music Archive. If you don't have the 2012 version or Movie Maker, next is a link.

- Here is the Free Music Archive - Link

- When you click on Download, it depends on which Browser you have, Some of them downloads it to your Download folder on your computer, like Google Chrome. Others show a new window and they show Save or Save File, etc. Once you click on them it also downloads it to your Download folder on your computer.
- Once it is downloaded you can drag it to another folder using File Explorer and use it Movie Maker or Kingsoft Presentation, etc.
- Next is YouTube and I will show you a sample of download with some Browsers.

- As I mentioned before, you need a Google Account, like Gmail. If you have Gmail, you click on  in the upper right and you see a list and click on YouTube.
- Next is what happens.

- It goes to YouTube and you click on you account in the upper right and then click on Creator Studio.
- Next is what happens.

- Page changes and you click on CREATE on the left.
- Next is what happens.

- You see Audio Library with music. You then can type in, like Venice again in the Search music and click on the Entry Key.
- Next is what happens.

The screenshot shows the YouTube Creator Studio interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options: CREATOR STUDIO, DASHBOARD, VIDEO MANAGER, LIVE STREAMING, COMMUNITY, CHANNEL, ANALYTICS, TRANSLATIONS & TRANSCRIPTIONS, CREATE, Audio Library (highlighted), Music Policies, Video Editor, YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS, and Help and feedback. The main content area is titled 'Audio Library' and has tabs for 'Free music' and 'Sound effects'. Below the tabs is the text 'Browse and download free music for your project.' A search bar labeled 'Search music' is present, with a blue arrow pointing to it. Below the search bar is a table of music tracks with columns for Tracks, Favorites, Genre, Mood, Instrument, Duration, Attribution, and a search icon. The table contains the following data:

- You see just one of them. You can click on Play on the left and/or click on Download on the right.
- Next is what happens when you download.

The screenshot shows the YouTube Audio Library interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options: CREATOR STUDIO, DASHBOARD, VIDEO MANAGER, LIVE STREAMING, COMMUNITY, CHANNEL, ANALYTICS, TRANSLATIONS & TRANSCRIPTIONS, and CREATE. The 'Audio Library' option is highlighted in red. The main content area has a blue header with the text 'Have different music in your video? Check its copyright policies'. Below this is the 'Audio Library' title and two tabs: 'Free music' (selected) and 'Sound effects'. The main text reads 'Browse and download free music for your project.' There are several filters: Genre, Mood, Instrument, Duration, and Attribution. A search bar contains the text 'Venice'. Below the filters is a table of music tracks. The first track is 'Venice Beach' by 'Topher Mohr and Alex Elena', with a duration of 2:56 and a genre of 'Pop | Happy'. A blue arrow points to the play button on the left of the track. Another blue arrow points to the search bar. A third blue arrow points to the download button (a downward arrow icon) on the right of the track. The 'Audio Library' option in the sidebar is also highlighted with a blue arrow.

- If you using Firefox Browser, a new window opens and you click on OK.
- Next is what happens with Google Chrome.

- If you using Google Chrome, it downloads it and a new window opens in the lower left and you click on the dropdown and click on Show in folder to find it.
- Next is what happens with Internet Explorer.

- If you using Internet Explorer, a new window opens at the bottom and you click on the dropdown and you can click on Save as and find the folder you want. If you click on Save, it goes to the Download folder.
- Next is about aTube Catcher.

Download Music using aTube Catcher

- aTube Catcher is free software and has a lot of features, as I showed you before in other Steps.
- If you already have aTube Catcher, go to the 19th page in this PDF file.
- If you don't have aTube Catcher, next is how to download it as I showed you in other Steps.

Download Music using aTube Catcher

- Download aTube Catcher from this site <http://www.atube.me/video/download.html>
- Once you download it, you will see this icon on your desktop. Double click on it to open it. You can Pin to Taskbar, like I showed you in other Steps.
- Next explains what aTube Catcher downloads.

Where does aTube Catcher download?

- Typically, it takes music from YouTube videos, which are public.
- There may be a copyright issue if you sell it.
- Next is aTube Catcher.

- After you download and open it, this is what it looks like with the features. Next is Music.

- Click on Music to download Music. Next is what happens.

- A new window opens and you can Search, which is next. Note – I zoomed in so you can see it

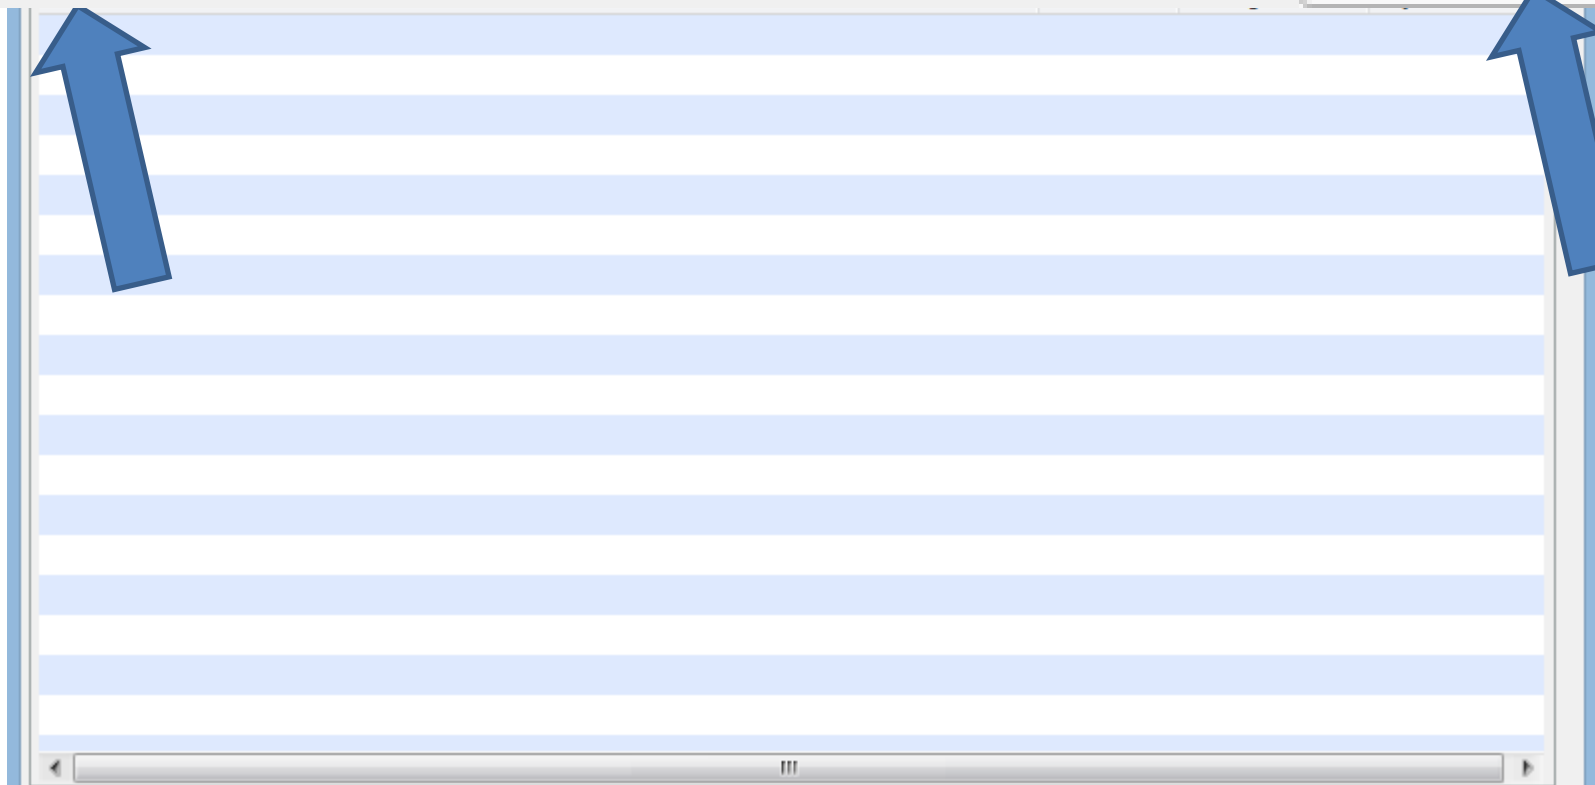

- Type in something like Christmas and click on Search MP3. Next is what happens.
