

Step 5 – Part 3 – Add Block Quote

- Hover over and then left click and hold it down and drag it down to the bottom, which is next

- You then see Block Quote.
- Next is the same process of Drag and Drop the Block Quote below the Text we just Paste.

- Here is a sample of Drag. Next is what it looks when you Drop.

- You then see it. As I mentioned before, don't edit yet. It also shows some background color. You can change full background color on a page, but it still shows this color on the Block Quote element.
- You may be able to change it using Edit HTML/CSS in Part 2 on-line training.
- This is the End of step 5 – Part 3.
